

Will the Stones Whisper Their Names?

African-American Burial Sites:
Identifying & Protecting
These Sacred sites

Learn the legal rights to visit, laws that protect, and how to record
these important sites.

Join the conversation at www.stoneswhisperblog.wordpress.com

ALL ARE WELCOME AT THE COMMUNITY MEETING:

Monday, June 19. 2017

Louisa County Public Library

881 Davis Hwy (Rt 22. between Louisa and Mineral)

2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Join the “Will the Stones Whisper their Names” Project - A Louisa County Historical Society (LCHS) endeavor to locate, identify, document, and protect the African American Grave Sites in Louisa County. These include not only Public and Church Cemeteries, but also the Family Cemeteries on Home/Private Properties as well as unmarked and/or unidentified Private Family Graveyard sites at other locations. The goal is to assure their preservation.

HELP US SHAPE A NEW HISTORIC NARRATIVE ABOUT RACE THROUGH THE DOCUMENTATION OF AFRICAN-AMERICAN BURIAL SITES.

Sponsored by the Louisa County Historical Society, The Virginia Department of Historic Resources, and Preservation Virginia

vfh Virginia Foundation for the Humanities